

WELLINGTON I. BEANS,

Representative from Mahaska county, was born in Stark county, Ohio, August 28, 1853, and moved to Mahaska county, Iowa, in the fall of 1856. His parents were American-born. Was educated in the common schools of Mahaska county and spent one year at Oskaloosa College. Began life as a farmer and engaged in the buying and shipping of stock in the year 1873, which occupation he followed until the spring of 1908. Has made a specialty of raising and shipping fine draft horses for the Chicago markets for the past twenty-five years. Has been associated with the Prairie Farmers Mutual Insurance Company of Poweshiek, Mahaska and Keokuk counties, which he helped organize and has been a director and treasurer of the company since organization. In February of 1906, with several others, organized the Farmers National Bank of Oskaloosa, Iowa, of which he is a director and president. Was a member of the school board for several terms and was successively township trustee and assessor. Elected Representative 1908 and re-elected in 1910. A Republican in politics.

WELLINGTON I. BEANS,

Representative from Mahaska county, was born in Stark county, Ohio, August 28, 1853, and moved to Mahaska county, Iowa, in the fall of 1856. His parents were American-born. Was educated in the common schools of Mahaska county and spent one year at Oskaloosa College. Began life as a farmer and engaged in the buying and shipping of stock in the year 1873, which occupation he followed until the spring of 1908. Has made a specialty of raising and shipping fine draft horses for the Chicago markets for the past twenty-five years. Has been associated with the Prairie Farmers Mutual Insurance Company of Poweshiek, Mahaska and Keokuk counties, which he helped organize and has been a director and treasurer of the company since organization. In February of 1906, with several others, organized the Farmers National Bank of Oskaloosa, Iowa, of which he is a director and president. Was a member of the school board for several terms and was successively township trustee and assessor. Elected Representative in 1908. A Republican in politics.